- Commenting on the Acquisition, Ian Livingstone, Non-executive Chairman of Sumo said:

“The Board of Sumo firmly believes the business will benefit from Tencent’s broad videogaming ecosystem, proven industry expertise and its strategic resources, which will help secure and further the aspirations and long-term success of Sumo. The Board of Sumo considers that the Acquisition is in the best interests of all stakeholders in the Company and intends to unanimously recommend this offer to shareholders. Tencent’s offer of 513 pence per share demonstrates the tremendous achievements of the management team, both financial and operational, since Sumo joined AIM in December 2017 at 100p per share, and provides an outstanding return for shareholders.”

- Commenting on the Acquisition, Carl Cavers, Chief Executive Officer of Sumo said:

“In the 18 years since we founded Sumo, we have developed more great games than we could ever have imagined and enjoyed incredible trust and support from our clients, enabling us to grow into a global business, delivering consistently strong financial results.

From a single studio in Sheffield, Sumo now totals 14 studios in five countries, spread across the globe, with more than 1,200 people. Sumo is and always has been a people business and great people make great games and enjoy great times. I am proud to lead such a talented and creative group of individuals.

The three founders of Sumo, who work in the business, Paul Porter, Darren Mills and I are passionate about what we do and are fully committed to continuing in our roles. The opportunity to work with Tencent is one we just couldn’t miss. It would bring another dimension to Sumo, presenting opportunities for us to truly stamp our mark on this amazing industry, in ways which have previously been out-of-reach.

Tencent has a strong track record for backing management teams and their existing strategies. Alongside the acceleration of Own-IP work, Tencent has demonstrated its commitment to backing our client work and has stated its intention to ensure that we have the necessary investment to continue focusing on work with our key strategic partners on turn-key and co-development projects. We love what we do and have some amazing relationships with the world’s best videogames publishers. Sumo will continue to work with these clients to break new ground and create even more fantastic games. We look forward to strengthening our growth prospects through the application of Tencent’s strategic resources to our Own-IP, turn-key development work ambitions, and possible acquisition opportunities.

We believe that the Acquisition is in the best interests of everyone connected to the business - our shareholders, our people, and our clients - and thank all our stakeholders, past and present, for the resounding support they have given us over the years.

The future for Sumo is more exciting than ever.”

- Commenting on the Acquisition, James Mitchell, Chief Strategy Officer and Senior Executive Vice President of Tencent said:

“Tencent is proud to have been an investor in Sumo since 2019, and we view the proposed combination as an evolution of our partnership. Tencent is a committed investor in the game industry, with a track record of supporting the growth of game studios around the world. We hold Sumo’s team and the games they produce in high regard, and its strategy and spirit of innovation have underpinned the success of the business over many years. Tencent intends to bring its expertise and resources to accelerate the growth of Sumo both in the UK and abroad, supporting Sumo in the market for top-notch creative talent, and the UK as a hub for game innovation. We believe the proposed transaction benefits all stakeholders, delivers compelling value for Sumo shareholders, while enhancing the Sumo business for the future.”

The Acquisition relates to the shares of an English company that is a “foreign private issuer” as defined in Rule 3b-4 under the US Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and is intended to be effected by means of a scheme of arrangement under English law. Neither the US proxy solicitation rules nor (unless implemented by means of a takeover offer) the tender offer rules under the US Exchange Act, will apply to the Acquisition. Accordingly, the Scheme will be subject to the disclosure requirements and practices applicable to the United Kingdom and under the Code to schemes of arrangement (or takeover offers, if applicable), which differ from the disclosure and procedural requirements of the US proxy solicitation rules and the tender offer rules. Neither the SEC, nor any securities commission of any state of the United States, has approved the Acquisition, passed upon the fairness of the Acquisition or passed upon the adequacy or accuracy of this document. Any representation to the contrary is a criminal offence in the United States. Financial information relating to Sumo included in this Announcement and the Scheme Circular has been or will have been prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards and accounting standards applicable in the United Kingdom that may not be comparable to financial information of US companies or companies whose financial statements are prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States.

The receipt of cash by a beneficial owner of Sumo Shares pursuant to the Acquisition as consideration for the transfer of its Scheme Shares pursuant to the Scheme will likely be a taxable transaction for United States federal income tax purposes and may also be a taxable transaction under other applicable tax laws, including any applicable United States state and local, as well as non-US, tax laws. Each Sumo Shareholder is urged to consult its independent professional adviser immediately regarding the tax consequences to it (or to its beneficial owners) of the Acquisition.

Sumo is organised under the laws of England, Tencent is organised under the laws of the Cayman Islands and Tencent Bidco is organised under the laws of Hong Kong. All of the officers and directors of Sumo and Tencent are residents of countries other than the United States and the majority of the assets of Sumo and Tencent are located outside of the United States. As a result, it may not be possible to effect service of process within the United States upon Sumo, Tencent, Tencent Bidco or any of their respective officers or directors, or to enforce outside the United States judgements obtained against Sumo, Tencent, Tencent Bidco or any of their respective officers or directors in courts in the United States, including, without limitation, judgements based upon the civil liability provisions of the US federal securities laws or the laws of any state or territory within the United States. It may not be possible to sue Sumo, Tencent and Tencent Bidco in a non-US court for violations of US securities laws. It may be difficult to compel Sumo, Tencent, Tencent Bidco and their respective affiliates to subject themselves to the jurisdiction and judgment of a court in the United States.

If the Acquisition is implemented by way of a Takeover Offer and Tencent Bidco determines to extend such offer into the United States, the offer will be made in compliance with applicable US tender offer rules. In such circumstances, Sumo Shareholders are urged to read any documents relating to the Acquisition because they will contain important information regarding the Acquisition. Such documents will be available from Sumo at www.Sumogroupplc.com.

In accordance with normal UK practice and pursuant to Rule 14e-5 under the US Exchange Act, Tencent Bidco or certain of its affiliates, or its nominees, or its brokers (acting as agents), may from time to time make certain purchases of, or arrangements to purchase, Sumo Shares outside of the United States, other than pursuant to the Acquisition, until the date on which the Acquisition becomes Effective or the Acquisition (or the Takeover Offer) lapses or is otherwise withdrawn. These purchases may occur either in the open market at prevailing prices or in private transactions at negotiated prices. Any information about such purchases will be disclosed as required in the UK, will be reported to a Regulatory Information Service and will be available on the London Stock Exchange website at www.londonstockexchange.com. Accordingly, such information will also be publicly disclosed in the United States to the extent that such information is made public in the UK.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

RECOMMENDED CASH ACQUISITION

by

SIXJOY HONG KONG LIMITED

an indirect subsidiary of

to be effected by means of a scheme of arrangement under Part 26 of the UK Companies Act 2006

1. Introduction

The boards of Tencent (“Tencent”) and Sumo Group plc (“Sumo”) are pleased to announce that they have reached an agreement on the terms of a recommended all cash acquisition by Tencent, through its wholly-owned subsidiary, Sixjoy Hong Kong Limited (“Tencent Bidco”), of the entire issued and to be issued ordinary share capital of Sumo which members of the Tencent Group do not already own. It is intended that the Acquisition will be implemented by means of a Court-sanctioned scheme of arrangement of Sumo under Part 26 of the Companies Act, further details of which are contained in paragraph 13 below.

2. Summary of terms of the Acquisition

Under the terms of the Acquisition, which will be subject to the Conditions and further terms set out in Appendix I of this Announcement (and the further terms and conditions to be set out in the Scheme Circular), which include (inter alia) approval of the Scheme at the Scheme Court Meeting, passing of resolutions at the General Meeting and the sanction of the Scheme by the Court, Scheme Shareholders will be entitled to receive:

for each Scheme Share: 513 pence in cash

The consideration values the entire issued and to be issued share capital of Sumo at approximately £919 million on a fully diluted basis.

If after the date of this Announcement, any dividend and/or other distribution and/or other return of capital is announced, declared, paid or made or becomes payable in respect of the Sumo Shares, Tencent Bidco reserves the right to reduce the Acquisition consideration by an amount up to the amount of such dividend and/or distribution and/or reduction of capital so announced, declared, paid or made or which becomes payable.

The price of 513 pence in cash for each Sumo Share represents:

- a premium of approximately 43.3 per cent. to the Closing Price of 358 pence per Sumo Share on 16 July 2021 (being the last Business Day before the date of this Announcement);
- a premium of approximately 40.9 per cent. to Sumo's 1 month volume weighted average share price of 364.2 pence per Sumo Share to 16 July 2021;
- a premium of approximately 45.5 per cent. to Sumo's 6 month volume weighted average share price of 352.5 pence per Sumo Share to 16 July 2021; and
- an enterprise value multiple of approximately 55.4 times Sumo's adjusted EBITDA for the 12 months ended 31 December 2020.

3. Recommendation

The Sumo Board, which has been so advised by Goldman Sachs and Zeus Capital as to the financial terms of the Acquisition, considers the terms of the Acquisition to be fair and reasonable. In providing their advice to the Sumo Board, Goldman Sachs and Zeus Capital have each taken into account the commercial assessments of the Sumo Board. Zeus Capital is providing independent financial advice to the Sumo Board for the purposes of Rule 3 of the Code. Each of Goldman Sachs and Zeus Capital have given and not withdrawn its consent to the inclusion in this Announcement of its advice to the Sumo Board in the form and context in which it appears.

Accordingly, the Sumo Board believes the terms of the Acquisition are in the best interests of Sumo Shareholders as a whole and intends to recommend unanimously that Sumo Shareholders vote, or procure voting, to approve the Scheme at the Scheme Court Meeting and vote, or procure voting, in favour of the resolutions to be proposed at the General Meeting or, if (with the consent of the Panel) Tencent Bidco exercises its right to implement the Acquisition by way of a Takeover Offer, accept or procure the acceptance of such Takeover Offer, as all of the Sumo Directors who hold Sumo Shares (in a personal capacity or through members of their immediate family) have irrevocably undertaken to do in respect of their beneficial holdings (and procure to be done in respect of the beneficial holdings of members of their immediate families) of 12,747,459 Sumo Shares, in aggregate, representing approximately 8.1 per cent. of the Sumo Shares in issue (excluding the Sumo Shares already owned by members of the Tencent Group) on 16 July 2021 (being the last Business Day before the date of this Announcement).

4. Background to and reasons for the recommendation

Sumo Group has performed well since the initial public offering in December 2017 at a price of 100 pence per share, which gave the Sumo Group a market capitalisation of £145 million at the time. In its three and a half years as a public company, Sumo has successfully delivered on the strategy set out by the Sumo Board at the time of its initial public offering, namely to deliver and expand services, to win new clients, to develop complementary revenue streams and to develop Own-IP.

Sumo has developed a large number of high-quality and award-winning game titles for its many clients over the years and has also launched a certain number of its own games. Sumo has completed seven acquisitions, growing into 14 studios in five countries.

The investment case for Sumo, to date, has been:

- its steady growth;
- its competitive advantage through capabilities and scale;
- its relatively low-risk high-visibility business model; and
- its strong track record.

Sumo has the talent, creativity, and expertise to conceive, develop, and deliver Own-IP games, but the scale and pace of doing so is restricted by the significantly increased investment and risk required to develop a new game and retain ownership of the intellectual property.

Tencent acquired a strategic shareholding in Sumo in November 2019 and the two organisations have a strong cultural alignment, in addition to their complementary skills and expertise. Being part of the Wider Tencent Group would provide significant opportunities for Sumo to accelerate its Own-IP development programme, whilst maintaining the high quality and independence of its existing work-for-hire projects, for which it has a strong pipeline. Tencent's network and global publishing capabilities, operational leverage, and insight into game-as-a-service, in-game operations, and free-to-play models, may further support such opportunities.

Sumo released an AGM Statement on 17 June 2021 in which it stated that “following an extraordinary year in 2020, when the Group delivered 279 project milestones and launched or announced a total of 12 games, including five Own-IP, and completed its first major acquisition, the Sumo Board is pleased to report that the global video games market remains strong and that the Sumo Group is performing in line with expectations in the year to date... Sumo Group remains well positioned to continue to take advantage of the strong growth in the global video games market.”

Given recent performance, the Sumo Directors remain confident that Sumo's existing strategy would deliver significant value over time for Sumo's Shareholders as an independent company, as it continues to successfully execute its strategy. Whilst confident in the existing strategy, the Sumo Directors also believe that the terms of the Acquisition acknowledge the quality of Sumo's growth potential, capabilities, historical track record, and future prospects. As such, the Sumo Directors intend unanimously to recommend the Acquisition to Sumo's Shareholders.

The Sumo Directors note that:

- the price per Sumo Share under the terms of the Acquisition represents a substantial premium of 40.9 per cent. to Sumo's 1 month volume weighted average share price of 364.2 pence per Sumo Share to 16 July 2021 (being the last Business Day before the date of this Announcement);
- the price per Sumo Share under the terms of the Acquisition represents a substantial multiple of 5.1 times the Sumo initial public offering price of 100 pence per share and an enterprise value multiple of approximately 55.4 times Sumo's adjusted EBITDA for the 12 months ended 31 December 2020;
- the Acquisition provides an opportunity for Sumo Shareholders to realise the value of their holding in cash;
- the terms of the Acquisition reflects the value created by Sumo's strategy to date, as well as the significant future value that Sumo is expected to generate;
- the Acquisition provides the best opportunity for Sumo's people to be involved in a greater number of Own-IP projects, which are often career enhancing, while maintaining its well-established relationships with existing blue-chip clients, thereby also improving Sumo's ability to attract creative talent; and

- the Sumo Directors also believe that Tencent's financial support and expertise, combined with its global publishing and distribution capabilities, will accelerate Sumo's Own-IP growth and, thereby, support its long-term success.

The Sumo Directors have also taken into account the statements and assurances made by Tencent regarding its future intentions for the business set out in paragraph 6 below. The Sumo Directors are particularly pleased with Tencent's stated intention to maintain the current headquarters in Sheffield.

The Sumo Directors also welcome the confirmation from Tencent that it does not envisage any material change in the balance of skills and functions of the employees and management or any material change in the conditions of employment of the management and employees of Sumo.

Accordingly, the Sumo Board intends to recommend unanimously the Acquisition to Sumo Shareholders as set out in paragraph 3 above.

5. Background to and reasons for the Acquisition

Tencent has been a supportive shareholder of Sumo since November 2019 and holds the company and its management team in high regard. Tencent believes a combination with Sumo can drive Sumo's growth and fulfil its longer-term visions with support from Tencent's strategic resources. Tencent believes that the Acquisition represents an attractive opportunity for Sumo's shareholders, board, management team and employees.

Provides an opportunity to grow Sumo's revenue in Own-IP development

In recent years Sumo has been exploring its Own-IP, which offers enhanced margins and returns in the long term, but comes at the cost of increased investment and risk in the short term.

Tencent would seek to accelerate this business transformation by providing the necessary financial and operational resources to bolster Sumo's Own-IP development and distribution. As part of the Tencent ecosystem, Sumo can benefit from Tencent's expertise and knowledge around game development and game operations, such as know-how in game-as-a-service and in-game operations, and from Tencent's publishing expertise and coverage.

Enhances Sumo's strategic positioning in high-quality turn-key co-development projects

Sumo has continuously delivered well-received game releases for global top publishers and accrued expertise across multiple genres. Tencent believes that Sumo would benefit from further investment to drive longer-term growth, and that it would be a supportive partner to fuel such growth through accelerating existing investment plans and studio growth initiatives. Post the Acquisition, Sumo will continue to focus on key strategic partnerships on turn-key and co-development engagements that require strong creative inputs.

Sumo would maintain the independence of its high quality existing turn-key, co-development and work-for-hire projects given its strong pipeline and high visibility of revenue streams in the sector.

Supplements Tencent's ecosystem, and supports Tencent's production efforts

Tencent's experience investing in Western game companies such as Riot, Epic, Miniclip, Ubisoft, Funcom, Fatshark and Sharkmob, evidences its ability to successfully develop partnerships that maximise mutual value and benefits. Similar to the existing strategic alliances that Tencent has with other Western game developers, a strategic partnership between Sumo and Tencent will allow Sumo to strengthen the overall Tencent ecosystem for its games business.

Supports Sumo in its efforts to attract and retain high quality creative talent as well as further scale the business

Sumo's continuing success is dependent on recruiting and retaining talented people. Sumo was named on the Best Companies UK's 100 Best Large Companies To Work For list, has been recognised for its high standards of workplace engagement, and undertakes multiple initiatives to grow organically in terms of employees. Sumo launched its own "Sumo Digital Academy" in September 2020 with the aim of increasing diversity by recruiting talented individuals from different backgrounds and training them in game development within the organisation. The Acquisition will further enhance Sumo's highly-regarded brand, helping to ensure it can continue to attract and retain top industry talent.

Tencent owns one of the largest video game businesses globally in terms of revenue. Tencent's global reputation and resources will provide Sumo with access to an even larger talent pool in an effort to further scale the business in the UK and abroad.

The Acquisition may also facilitate inorganic growth via selective acquisitions. Sumo has a strong M&A track record and has established itself as a business that emphasises development quality, alignment of interest and culture when assessing targets. Tencent believes Sumo can continue to strengthen its talent pool through both organic and inorganic expansion.

6. Management, employees and business of Sumo

Tencent's strategic plans for Sumo

Tencent will seek to ensure that Sumo has the necessary investment so as to be able to continue to focus on its work with key strategic partners on turn-key and co-development projects requiring strong creative inputs, with the aim of achieving further global success stories and building world-class, award winning products.

In addition, Tencent intends to facilitate Sumo's work developing more of its Own-IP, by providing the necessary financial and operational resources to the business and by providing it with enhanced access to attractive markets and geographies.

Tencent's growth aims for Sumo will be underpinned through its investment in Sumo's employees and, in addition, will actively evaluate ways to accelerate Sumo's growth via selective acquisitions.

Employees and management

Tencent intends for Sumo's existing senior management team to continue to lead the business and workforce post acquisition. Tencent is focused on investing in Sumo to accelerate its growth and would expect the number of employees to increase over time as Sumo execute upon their plan.

Tencent does not intend to make any material changes to the conditions of employment of any Sumo Group employees nor make any material changes to the balance of the skills and functions of Sumo Group employees.

Existing rights and pensions

Tencent confirms that, following the Scheme becoming Effective, the existing contractual and statutory employment rights, including in relation to pensions and any other employment benefits, of all Sumo Group employees and management will be safeguarded in accordance with applicable law.

Sumo does not maintain any defined benefit pension schemes.

Incentivisation arrangements

Tencent intends to put in place appropriate incentive arrangements for management, senior employees and other employees of Sumo following completion of the Acquisition that are comparable as to the scope of coverage and terms of market rates, but in any event no less favourable than, those currently in place at Sumo. Tencent does not intend to hold any discussions in relation to such arrangements until after the Effective Date.

Locations, headquarters, fixed assets and research and development

Tencent has no plans to change the location of Sumo's headquarters and headquarters functions, or locations of Sumo's places of business or to redeploy the fixed assets of Sumo following completion of the Acquisition. Tencent does not expect the Acquisition to have a material impact on the research and development functions of Sumo.

Trading facilities

Sumo Shares are currently traded on AIM and, as set out in paragraph 14 below, a request will be made to the London Stock Exchange to cancel trading in Sumo Shares on AIM, to take effect from or shortly after the Effective Date.

Once Sumo ceases to be a traded company, it is anticipated that a small number of corporate and support functions, including PLC related functions, may require redeployment to other functions. Tencent Bidco has not yet developed proposals as to how any such redeployment, if any, would be implemented. It is intended that the non-executive directors of Sumo will resign on or shortly following completion of the Acquisition.

7. Irrevocable undertakings to vote in favour of the Acquisition

Tencent Bidco has received irrevocable undertakings to vote, or procure voting, to approve the Scheme at the Scheme Court Meeting and vote, or procure voting, in favour of the resolutions to be proposed at the General Meeting or, if (with the consent of the Panel) Tencent Bidco exercises its right to implement the Acquisition by way of a Takeover Offer, to accept or procure the acceptance of such Takeover Offer from all of the Sumo Directors (in a personal capacity or through members of their immediate families) in respect of their beneficial holdings (and the beneficial holdings of members of their immediate families) of 12,747,459 Sumo Shares representing, in aggregate, approximately 8.1 per cent. of the Sumo Shares in issue (excluding the Sumo Shares already owned by members of the Tencent Group) on 16 July 2021 (being the last Business Day before the date of this Announcement).

Tencent Bidco has also received an irrevocable undertaking to approve the Scheme at the Scheme Court Meeting and vote in favour of the resolutions to be proposed at the General Meeting or, if (with the consent of the Panel) Tencent Bidco exercises its right to implement the Acquisition by way of a Takeover Offer, to accept such Takeover Offer from Perwyn Bidco (UK) II Limited, an affiliate of Perwyn Advisers UK Limited, Sumo's largest shareholder, in respect of 26,170,961 Sumo Shares representing, in aggregate, approximately 16.7 per cent. of the Sumo Shares in issue (excluding the Sumo Shares already owned by members of the Tencent Group) on 16 July 2021 (being the last Business Day before the date of this Announcement).

Tencent Bidco has also received an irrevocable undertaking on substantially the same terms as that given by the Sumo Directors from:

- Darren Mills (Co-founder, Director of Excellence and Integration of Sumo) in respect of his beneficial holdings of 2,977,095 Sumo Shares, representing approximately 1.9 per cent. of the Sumo Shares in issue (excluding the Sumo Shares already owned by members of the Tencent Group) on 16 July 2021 (being the last Business Day before the date of this Announcement); and
- Steven Webb (General Counsel and Company Secretary) in respect of his beneficial holdings of 306,745 Sumo Shares, representing approximately 0.2 per cent. of the Sumo Shares in issue (excluding the Sumo Shares already owned by members of the Tencent Group) on 16 July 2021 (being the last Business Day before the date of this Announcement);.

In total, therefore, Tencent has received irrevocable undertakings to approve the Scheme at the Scheme Court Meeting and vote in favour of the resolutions to be proposed at the General Meeting in respect of 42,202,260 Sumo Shares representing, in aggregate, approximately 27 per cent. of the Sumo Shares in issue (excluding the Sumo Shares already owned by members of the Tencent Group) on 16 July 2021 (being the last Business Day before the date of this Announcement).

Further details of the irrevocable undertakings received by Tencent Bidco (including details of the circumstances in which the irrevocable undertakings will cease to be binding) are set out in Appendix III to this Announcement.

Further details of these proposals will be set out in the Scheme Circular and communicated in a separate letter to be sent to participants in the Sumo Long Term Incentive Plan in due course.

12. Offer-related arrangements

Confidentiality Agreement

Sumo and Tencent Limited have entered into the Confidentiality Agreement pursuant to which Tencent Limited has undertaken, among other things, to: (i) keep confidential information relating to Sumo and the Sumo Group and not to disclose it to third parties (other than certain permitted parties) and certain members of the Tencent Group, unless required by law or regulation; and (ii) use the confidential information only in connection with an offer for Sumo.

The Confidentiality Agreement contains standstill provisions which restrict Tencent or any member of the Tencent Group from, among other things, acquiring or seeking to acquire interests in securities of Sumo. The Confidentiality Agreement also includes a non-solicitation obligation on certain members of the Tencent Group. The standstill and non-solicitation provisions are subject to certain customary carve-outs and each lasts for a period of 12 months after the date of the Confidentiality Agreement.

The confidentiality obligations remain in force for a period of 24 months after the date of the Confidentiality Agreement.

Co-operation Agreement

On 19 July 2021, Tencent Bidco, Tencent and Sumo entered into a co-operation agreement (the “Co-operation Agreement”), pursuant to which, among other things, Tencent Bidco and Sumo have agreed to cooperate: (i) in relation to obtaining regulatory clearances in connection with the Acquisition and the making of filings in respect of such clearances, and (ii) in preparing and implementing appropriate proposals in relation to the Sumo Share Plans. In addition, Tencent Bidco has agreed to certain provisions if the Scheme should switch to a Takeover Offer and the approach to be followed after the Effective Date in respect of certain employee matters.

The Co-operation Agreement will terminate in certain circumstances, including, among others: (i) as agreed in writing between Tencent Bidco and Sumo at any time before the Effective Date, (ii) if the Sumo Directors withdraw, qualify or adversely modify their recommendation of the Acquisition, (iii) if the Sumo Directors do not post the Scheme Circular or convene the Scheme Court Meeting or General Meeting, (iv) if any Condition which has not been waived is (or has become) incapable of satisfaction by the Long Stop Date and, notwithstanding that Tencent Bidco has the right to waive such Condition, it will not do so (in circumstances where the invocation of the relevant Condition has been permitted by the Panel), (v) a competing offer, completes, becomes effective or is declared or becomes unconditional, or (vi) if the Acquisition is withdrawn or lapses.

13. Structure of the Acquisition

It is intended that the Acquisition will be implemented by means of a Court-sanctioned scheme of arrangement of Sumo under Part 26 of the Companies Act. The Scheme is an arrangement between Sumo and the Scheme Shareholders. The procedure involves, among other things, an application by Sumo to the Court to sanction the Scheme. The purpose of the Scheme is to provide for Tencent Bidco to become the owner of the entire issued and to be issued share capital of Sumo on the Effective Date, in consideration for which Scheme Shareholders will receive cash on the basis set out in paragraph 2 above.

The Acquisition is subject to the Conditions and certain further terms set out in Appendix I to this Announcement and to the full terms and conditions to be set out in the Scheme Circular, and will only become Effective if, among other things, the following events occur on or before the Long Stop Date or such later date as Tencent and Sumo agree:

- a resolution to approve the Scheme is passed by a majority in number of Scheme Shareholders present and voting (and entitled to vote) at the Scheme Court Meeting, either in person or by proxy, representing not less than three-quarters in value of the Scheme Shares held by those Scheme Shareholders;
- the resolutions (including the Special Resolution) required to approve and implement the Scheme and to approve certain related matters are passed (by the requisite majority of Sumo Shareholders required to pass such resolutions) at the General Meeting;
- following the Scheme Court Meeting and General Meeting, the Scheme is sanctioned by the Court

(without modification, or with modification on terms agreed by Tencent and Sumo); and

- a copy of the Scheme Court Order is delivered to the Registrar of Companies of England and Wales.

The Acquisition is subject to the receipt of antitrust clearances in the United Kingdom and United States and a foreign-direct investment approval under the CFIUS regime in the United States (or the lapsing of applicable waiting periods).

Upon the Scheme becoming Effective: (i) it will be binding on all Sumo Shareholders, irrespective of whether or not they attended or voted at the Scheme Court Meeting and the General Meeting (and, if they attended and voted, whether or not they voted in favour of the Scheme at the Scheme Court Meeting or in favour of or against the resolution(s) at the General Meeting); and (ii) share certificates in respect of Sumo Shares will cease to be of value and should be destroyed and entitlements to Sumo Shares held within the CREST system will be cancelled.

Any Sumo Shares issued before the Scheme Record Time will be subject to the terms of the Scheme. The resolution(s) to be proposed at the General Meeting will, among other matters, provide that the articles of association of Sumo be amended to incorporate provisions requiring any Sumo shares issued after the Scheme Record Time (other than to Tencent Bidco and/or its nominees) to be automatically transferred to Tencent Bidco on the same terms as the Acquisition (other than terms as to timings and formalities). The provisions of the articles of association of Sumo (as amended) will avoid any person (other than Tencent Bidco and its nominees) holding shares in the capital of Sumo after the Effective Date.

If the Scheme does not become Effective on or before the Long Stop Date (or such later date as Tencent and Sumo may, with the consent of the Panel, agree), it will lapse and the Acquisition will not proceed (unless the Panel otherwise consents).

The Scheme Circular will include full details of the Scheme, together with notices of the Scheme Court Meeting and the General Meeting. The Scheme Circular will also contain the expected timetable for the Acquisition, and will specify the necessary actions to be taken by Sumo Shareholders. It is expected that the Scheme Circular together with Forms of Proxy will be posted to Sumo Shareholders and, for information only, to persons with information rights and to participants in the Sumo Share Plans in August 2021 and in any event within 28 days from the date of this Announcement. Subject, among other things, to the satisfaction or waiver of the Conditions, it is expected that the Scheme will become Effective towards the end of the fourth quarter of 2021.

14. Cancellation of trading and re-registration

Prior to the Scheme becoming Effective, a request will be made by Sumo to the London Stock Exchange to cancel the trading in Sumo Shares on AIM to take effect on, or shortly after, the Effective Date.

On the Effective Date, share certificates in respect of Sumo Shares will cease to be valid (and should be destroyed) and entitlements to Sumo Shares held within the CREST system will be cancelled. As soon as practicable after the Effective Date and after the cancellation of the trading in Sumo Shares on AIM, it is intended that Sumo will be re-registered as a private limited company under the relevant provisions of the Companies Act.

15. Disclosure of interests in Sumo Shares

Mount Emei Investment Limited, a wholly-owned direct subsidiary of Tencent, holds 15,000,000 Sumo Shares representing approximately 8.75 per cent. of the issued share capital of Sumo as at 16

July 2021, being the last Business Day before the date of this Announcement.

Save as disclosed above and in respect of the irrevocable undertakings referred to above, as at the close of business on 16 July 2021 (the last Business Day prior to the date of this Announcement) neither Tencent Bidco, nor any of the directors of Tencent Bidco, nor, so far as any of the directors of Tencent Bidco are aware, any person acting in concert (within the meaning of the Code) with Tencent Bidco, had any interest in, right to subscribe for, or had borrowed or lent (including, for these purposes, any financial collateral arrangements of the kind referred to in Note 4 on Rule 4.6 of the Code), any Sumo Shares or securities convertible or exchangeable into Sumo Shares, nor did any such person have any short position (whether conditional or absolute and whether in the money or otherwise), including any short position under a derivative, any agreement to sell or any delivery obligation or right to require another person to purchase or take delivery or any dealing arrangement of the kind referred to in Note 11 of the definition of acting in concert in the Code, in relation to Sumo Shares or in relation to any securities convertible or exchangeable into Sumo Shares.

In the interests of secrecy prior to this Announcement, Tencent Bidco has not made any enquiries in respect of the matters referred to in this paragraph of certain persons who may be deemed by the Panel to be acting in concert with Tencent Bidco for the purposes of the Scheme. Enquiries of such persons will be made as soon as practicable following the date of this Announcement and any disclosure in respect of such persons will be included in Tencent Bidco's Opening Position Disclosure in accordance with Rule 8.1(a) and Note 2(a)(i) on Rule 8 of the Code.

16. Overseas shareholders

The availability of the Acquisition and the distribution of this Announcement to persons not resident in the United Kingdom may be affected by the laws and regulations of the relevant jurisdiction. Such persons should inform themselves about, and observe, any applicable legal or regulatory requirements. Sumo Shareholders who are in any doubt regarding such matters should consult an appropriate independent professional adviser in the relevant jurisdiction without delay.

This Announcement does not constitute an offer for sale of any securities or an offer or an invitation to purchase any securities. Sumo Shareholders are advised to read carefully the Scheme Circular and the Forms of Proxy once these have been dispatched.

18. General

The Acquisition will be subject to the Conditions and certain further terms set out in Appendix I and the further terms and conditions to be set out in the Scheme Circular when issued and such further terms as may be required to comply with the provisions of the Code.

Tencent Bidco reserves the right, subject to Panel consent, to elect to implement the Acquisition by way of a Takeover Offer as an alternative to the Scheme.

If the Acquisition is implemented by way of a Takeover Offer, the Acquisition will be implemented on substantially the same terms as those which would apply to the Scheme (subject to appropriate amendments) and, in particular, the acceptance condition applicable to the Acquisition shall be set at no more than that number of Sumo Shares carrying in aggregate more than 75 per cent. of the voting rights ordinarily exercisable at a general meeting.

If the Acquisition is effected by way of a Takeover Offer and such Takeover Offer becomes or is declared unconditional and sufficient acceptances are received, Tencent intends to: (i) make a request to the London Stock Exchange to cancel trading in Sumo Shares on AIM; and (ii) exercise its rights to apply the provisions of Chapter 3 of Part 28 of the Companies Act to acquire compulsorily the remaining Sumo Shares in respect of which the Takeover Offer has not been accepted.

There are no agreements or arrangements to which Tencent is a party which relate to the circumstances in which it may or may not seek to invoke any of the Conditions to the implementation of the Acquisition.

The Acquisition will be governed by English law and will be subject to the jurisdiction of the courts of England and Wales. The Acquisition will be subject to the applicable requirements of the Code, the Panel, the London Stock Exchange, the AIM Rules and the FCA.

Certain notices to US investors in Sumo

The Acquisition relates to the shares of an English company that is a “foreign private issuer” as defined in Rule 3b-4 under the US Exchange Act, and is intended to be effected by means of a scheme of arrangement under English law. Neither the US proxy solicitation rules nor (unless implemented by means of a takeover offer) the tender offer rules under the US Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, will apply to the Acquisition. Accordingly, the Scheme will be subject to the disclosure requirements and practices applicable to the United Kingdom and under the Code to schemes of arrangement (or takeover offers, if applicable), which differ from the disclosure and procedural requirements of the US proxy solicitation rules and the tender offer rules. Neither the SEC, nor any securities commission of any state of the United States, has approved the Acquisition, passed upon the fairness of the Acquisition or passed upon the adequacy or accuracy of this document. Any representation to the contrary is a criminal offence in the United States. It may be difficult to compel Sumo, Tencent, Tencent Bidco and their respective affiliates to subject themselves to the jurisdiction and judgment of a court in the United States.

If the Acquisition is implemented by way of a Takeover Offer and Tencent Bidco determines to extend such offer into the United States, the offer will be made in compliance with applicable US tender offer rules. In such circumstances, Sumo Shareholders are urged to read any documents relating to the Acquisition because they will contain important information regarding the Acquisition. Such documents will be available from Sumo at www.Sumogroupplc.com.

In accordance with normal UK practice and pursuant to Rule 14e-5 under the US Exchange Act, Tencent Bidco or certain of its affiliates, or its nominees, or its brokers (acting as agents), may from time to time make certain purchases of, or arrangements to purchase, Sumo Shares outside of the United States, other than pursuant to the Acquisition, until the date on which the Acquisition becomes Effective or the Acquisition (or the Takeover Offer) lapses or is otherwise withdrawn. These purchases may occur either in the open market at prevailing prices or in private transactions at negotiated prices. Any information about such purchases will be disclosed as required in the UK, will be reported to a Regulatory Information Service and will be available on the London Stock Exchange website at www.londonstockexchange.com. Accordingly, such information will also be publicly disclosed in the United States to the extent that such information is made public in the

Forward-looking statements

This Announcement (including information incorporated by reference in this Announcement), oral statements made regarding the Acquisition, and other information published by Sumo, Tencent and Tencent Bidco contain statements which are, or may be deemed to be, “forward looking statements”. Such forward looking statements are prospective in nature and are not based on historical facts, but rather on current expectations and on numerous assumptions regarding the business strategies and the environment in which the Tencent Group or the Enlarged Group will operate in the future and are subject to risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed or implied by those statements. The forward looking statements contained in this Announcement relate to the Tencent Group’s or the Enlarged Group’s future prospects, developments and business strategies, the expected timing and scope of the Acquisition and other statements other than historical facts. In some cases, these forward looking statements can be identified by the use of forward looking terminology, including the terms “believes”, “estimates”, “will look to”, “would look to”, “plans”, “prepares”, “anticipates”, “expects”, “is expected to”, “is subject to”, “budget”, “scheduled”, “forecasts”, “synergy”, “strategy”, “goal”, “cost-saving”, “projects” “intends”, “may”, “will” or “should” or their negatives or other variations or comparable terminology. Forward-looking statements may include statements relating to the following: (i) future capital expenditures, expenses, revenues, earnings, synergies, economic performance, indebtedness, financial condition, dividend policy, losses and future prospects; (ii) business and management strategies and the expansion and growth of Tencent or Sumo’s operations and potential synergies resulting from the Acquisition; (iii) technological developments and commercial and customer relationships, and (iv) the effects of global economic conditions and governmental regulation on Tencent’ or Sumo’s business. These events and circumstances includes changes in the global, political, economic, business, competitive, market and regulatory forces, future exchange and interest rates, changes in tax rates and future business, partnerships, combinations or disposals. If any one or more of these risks or uncertainties materialises or if any one or more of the assumptions prove incorrect, actual results may differ materially from those expected, estimated or projected. Such forward looking statements should therefore be construed in the light of such factors. Neither one of Sumo, Tencent or Tencent Bidco nor any of their respective associates or directors, officers or advisers, provides any representation, assurance or guarantee that the occurrence of the events expressed or implied in any forward looking statements in this Announcement will actually occur. Given these risks and uncertainties, potential investors should not place any reliance on forward looking statements.

The forward looking statements speak only at the date of this document. All subsequent oral or written forward-looking statements attributable to any member of the Tencent Group or Sumo Group, or any of their respective associates, directors, officers, employees or advisers, are expressly qualified in their entirety by the cautionary statement above.

No profit forecasts or estimates

No statement in this Announcement is intended as a profit forecast or profit estimate and no statement in this Announcement should be interpreted to mean that earnings or earnings per Sumo Share or Tencent share, as appropriate, for the current or future financial years would necessarily match or exceed the historical published earnings or earning per Sumo Share or Tencent share or to mean that the Enlarged Group’s earnings in the first 12 months following the Acquisition, or in any subsequent period, would necessarily match or be greater than those of Sumo or Tencent for the relevant preceding financial period or any other period.

Part 2 Waiver and invocation of the Conditions

The Scheme will not become Effective unless the Conditions have been fulfilled or (if capable of waiver) waived or, where appropriate, have been determined by Tencent Bidco to be or remain satisfied by no later than the Long Stop Date (or such later date as Tencent Bidco and Sumo may, with the consent of Panel, agree and (if required) the Court may allow), subject to the rules of the Code and where applicable the consent of the Panel.

Tencent Bidco reserves the right in its sole discretion (subject to the requirements of the Code and the Panel) to waive:

- those parts of all or any of Condition 2 (Scheme Approval) of Part 1 of this Appendix I relating to the deadlines for the Scheme Court Meeting, General Meeting and/or the Scheme Court Hearing. If any such deadline is not met, Tencent Bidco shall make an announcement by 8.00 a.m. on the Business Day following such deadline confirming whether it has invoked the relevant Condition, waived the relevant deadlines or agreed with Sumo to extend the relevant deadline; or
- in whole or in part, all or any of Conditions 3(a) to 3(m) of Part 1 of this Appendix I.

Under Rule 13.5(a) of the Code, Tencent Bidco may only invoke a Condition so as to cause the Acquisition not to proceed, to lapse or to be withdrawn with the consent of the Panel. The Panel will normally only give its consent if the circumstances which give rise to the right to invoke the Condition are of material significance to Tencent Bidco in the context of the Acquisition. This will be judged by reference to the facts of each case at the time that the relevant circumstances arise.

Condition 1 (Long Stop Date) and Condition 2 (Scheme Approval) of Part 1 of this Appendix I and, if applicable, any acceptance condition if the Acquisition is implemented by means of a Takeover Offer, are not subject to Rule 13.5(a) of the Code. Any Condition which is subject to Rule 13.5(a) may be waived by Tencent Bidco.

Tencent Bidco shall be under no obligation to waive (if capable of waiver), to determine to be or remain satisfied or to treat as fulfilled any of the above Conditions inclusive by a date earlier than the latest date specified above for the fulfilment of that Condition, notwithstanding that the other Conditions of the Acquisition may at such earlier date have been waived or fulfilled and that there are, at such earlier date, no circumstances indicating that any Condition may not be capable of fulfilment.

Part 3 Implementation by way of a Takeover Offer

Tencent Bidco reserves the right to elect to implement the Acquisition by way of a Takeover Offer, subject to the Panel's consent. In such event, such Takeover Offer will be implemented on the same terms and conditions, so far as applicable, as those which would apply to the Scheme subject to appropriate amendments, including (without limitation) an acceptance condition set at no more than that number of Sumo Shares carrying in aggregate more than 75 per cent. of the voting rights ordinarily exercisable at a general meeting or, subject to the Panel's consent (to the extent necessary) and the Co-operation Agreement, such other percentage as Tencent Bidco may decide (being in aggregate more than 50 per cent. of the voting rights exercisable at a general meeting).

Part 4 Certain further terms of the Acquisition

If Tencent Bidco is required by the Panel to make an offer for Sumo Shares under the provisions of Rule 9 of the Code, Tencent Bidco may make such alterations to any of the above Conditions as are necessary to comply with the provisions of that Rule.

The Sumo Shares will be acquired by Tencent Bidco under the Acquisition fully paid, with full title guarantee and free from all liens, equities, charges, encumbrances options and rights of pre-emption and any other third party rights or interests of any nature whatsoever and together with all rights attaching thereto, including, without limitation, voting rights and entitlement to receive and retain in full all dividends and other distributions announced, declared, paid or made or which become payable or any other return of capital (whether by way of reduction of share capital or share premium or otherwise) by the Company after the date of the Effective Time.

If, on or after the date of this Announcement, any dividend and/or other distribution and/or other return of capital is announced, declared, paid or made or becomes payable in respect of the Sumo Shares, Tencent Bidco reserves the right (without prejudice to any right of Tencent Bidco to invoke Condition (i)(iii) in Part 1 of this Appendix I), to reduce the cash consideration for the Sumo Shares by an amount up to the amount of such dividend and/or distribution and/or return of capital so announced, declared, paid or made or which becomes payable, in which case any reference in this Announcement or in the Scheme Circular to the offer consideration for the Sumo Shares will be deemed to be a reference to the offer consideration as so reduced. If Tencent Bidco exercises its right to reduce the consideration payable under the terms of the Acquisition for the Sumo Shares by an amount up to the amount of a dividend and/or distribution and/or return of capital that has not been paid, Sumo Shareholders will be entitled to receive and retain any such dividend and/or distribution and/or return of capital. To the extent that any such dividend and/or distribution and/or other return of capital is announced, declared, paid or made or becomes payable and it is: (a) transferred pursuant to the Acquisition on a basis which entitles Tencent Bidco to receive the dividend or distribution and to retain it; or (b) cancelled, the offer consideration will not be subject to change in accordance with this paragraph. Any exercise by Tencent Bidco of its rights referred to in this paragraph shall be the subject of an announcement and the consent of the Panel and, for the avoidance of doubt, shall not be regarded as constituting any revision or variation of the Acquisition.

The Acquisition will be subject to the Conditions and certain further terms set out in this Appendix I and the further terms and conditions to be set out in the Scheme Circular when issued and such further terms as may be required to comply with the AIM Rules and the provisions of the Code.

Each of the Conditions shall be regarded as a separate Condition and not be limited by reference to any other Condition.

The availability of the Acquisition to persons not resident in the United Kingdom may be affected by the laws of the relevant jurisdiction. Any persons who are subject to the laws of any jurisdiction other than the United Kingdom should inform themselves about and observe any applicable requirements. Further information in relation to overseas shareholders will be contained in the Scheme Circular.

The Acquisition is not being made, directly or indirectly, in, into or from, or by use of the mails of, or by any means of instrumentality (including, but not limited to, facsimile, e-mail or other electronic transmission, telex or telephone) of interstate or foreign commerce of, or of any facility of a national, state or other securities exchange of, any jurisdiction where to do so would violate the laws of that jurisdiction.

This Announcement and any rights or liabilities arising hereunder, the Acquisition, the Scheme, and any proxies will be governed by English law and be subject to the jurisdiction of the courts of England and Wales. The Scheme will be subject to the applicable requirements of the Code, the Panel, the London Stock Exchange, the AIM Rules and the FCA.
